REVENANT GAMES

PROJECT LAZARUS

Project Lazarus is an NFT-based kingdom management game built on the Metis network. Journey across outer space to build, manage, and rule your own colony. Only the bravest will ascend to the stars. Will you be one of them?

BATTLE OF OLYMPUS

Battle of Olympus is an NFT-based arcade fighting game built on the Metis network. Play as Zeus, Poseidon, Athena, or another Greek god and battle your way to the top. Will you emerge as the champion of Olympus?

REVENANT COINFLIP

If you want to speculate on the flip of a coin, then this is the prediction game for you. Heads or tails? The choice is yours. Guess right and win big. Only on the Metis network.

THE BEST GAMING LAUNCHPAD ON THE METIS NETWORK

Launching a game and its tokens is a complicated process. Our team believes in collaborating with the gaming community to ensure a more successful space for all. Revenant Launchpad is a platform that makes this process simple for game developers so they have more time to do what they do best: make high-quality games.

Revenant Launchpad puts our expertise in marketing, partnerships, and fundraising at game developers' disposal to ensure their game gets the funding it needs. With Revenant Launchpad, game developers can organize a whitelist and presale without any of the hassle.

PROJECT LAZARUS

Project Lazarus is an NFT-based kingdom management game built on the Metis network. Journey across outer space to build, manage, and rule your own colony. Only the bravest will ascend to the stars.

NFT MARKETPLACE

Revenant Marketplace is a platform for gamers and investors to come together to game, buy, sell, and trade their NFTs to participate in the Revenant Ecosystem.

REVENANT ESPORTS

Revenant eSports is a platform that organizes tournaments for gamers worldwide to compete, network, and earn while playing crypto games that are actually fun.

eSports have reached worldwide popularity with many top gamers earning a healthy income. However, this earning potential is usually outside of the crypto sphere.

Revenant eSports will maximize gamers' earning potential by capitalizing on the crypto market and our expertise in the gaming industry.
